

QEGS Politics and Economics Wider Reading List

Regular reading of quality newspapers/apps is essential.

Eg The Guardian allows content to be freely available online and others just need an email address for you to access articles.

Watch news programmes, including those with wider analysis and debate e.g. Newsnight and Question Time.

The Library has free access to the Financial Times which you should use.

Periodicals and journals can also be a useful source of information
e.g. The Economist, The Knowledge and The Week.

Podcasts, documentaries, films and TV programmes can also be very good.

E.g. The Rest is Politics

Americast (on BBC Sounds)

Hot spots on Sky news, especially at election time

Political Thinking (BBC Sounds again)

The Rest is Money

Understand: The economy (Sounds)

The exam board for Politics have also produced a resource list:

<https://www.aqa.org.uk/resources/government-and-politics/as-and-a-level/government-and-politics/a-level/teach/resource-list>